

SUMMER EVENTS ROUNDUP

Calgary Stampede – Wally and Betty’s Grain Gallery – July 7 - 16

Staff assist children at The Calgary Stampede from July 7th to 16th as they plant and harvest their wheat and barley crops. The Wally Wheat and Betty Barley Interactive Grain Gallery walks kids through three stages of each, enlisting interactive help to harvest grains, mill wheat, feed barley to cows and make pizza.

Combine to Craft – government relations event in collaboration with Alberta Small Brewers Association showing the entire barley value chain – July 13

Farmers, Industry, and government gather July 13 at Born Brewing Co to hear from Minister of Agriculture and Agri-Food, The Honorable Marie-Claude Bibeau as we celebrate Alberta barley from combine to craft.

WheatStalk South – June 28 – Lethbridge, AB

Growers gather on June 28 in Lethbridge to participate in the sold-out, wheat-centric event, WheatStalk. It was a day of agronomic learning and fun in the sun!

CMBTC Field Day – July 28 – Bentley, AB

Local farmer Jason Lenz speaks in front of his Malt Barley crop on July 28th in Bentley, AB, at an information session for farmers and industry. Lenz hosted the event alongside Canadian Malt Barley Technical Center, Alberta Barley and RDAR.

Plot2Farm Field Day – August 3 – Willingdon, AB

"The information collected from these trials is designed to help you gain further understanding of how management decisions affect your crop."

– Jeremy Boychyn MSc. P. Ag.

Not even the rain could keep guests from attending the Alberta Wheat and Barley Commissions' inaugural Plot2Farm Field Day, held August 3rd in Willingdon, AB, highlighting on-farm research conducted at local producer's farm, Jeff Porozni.
